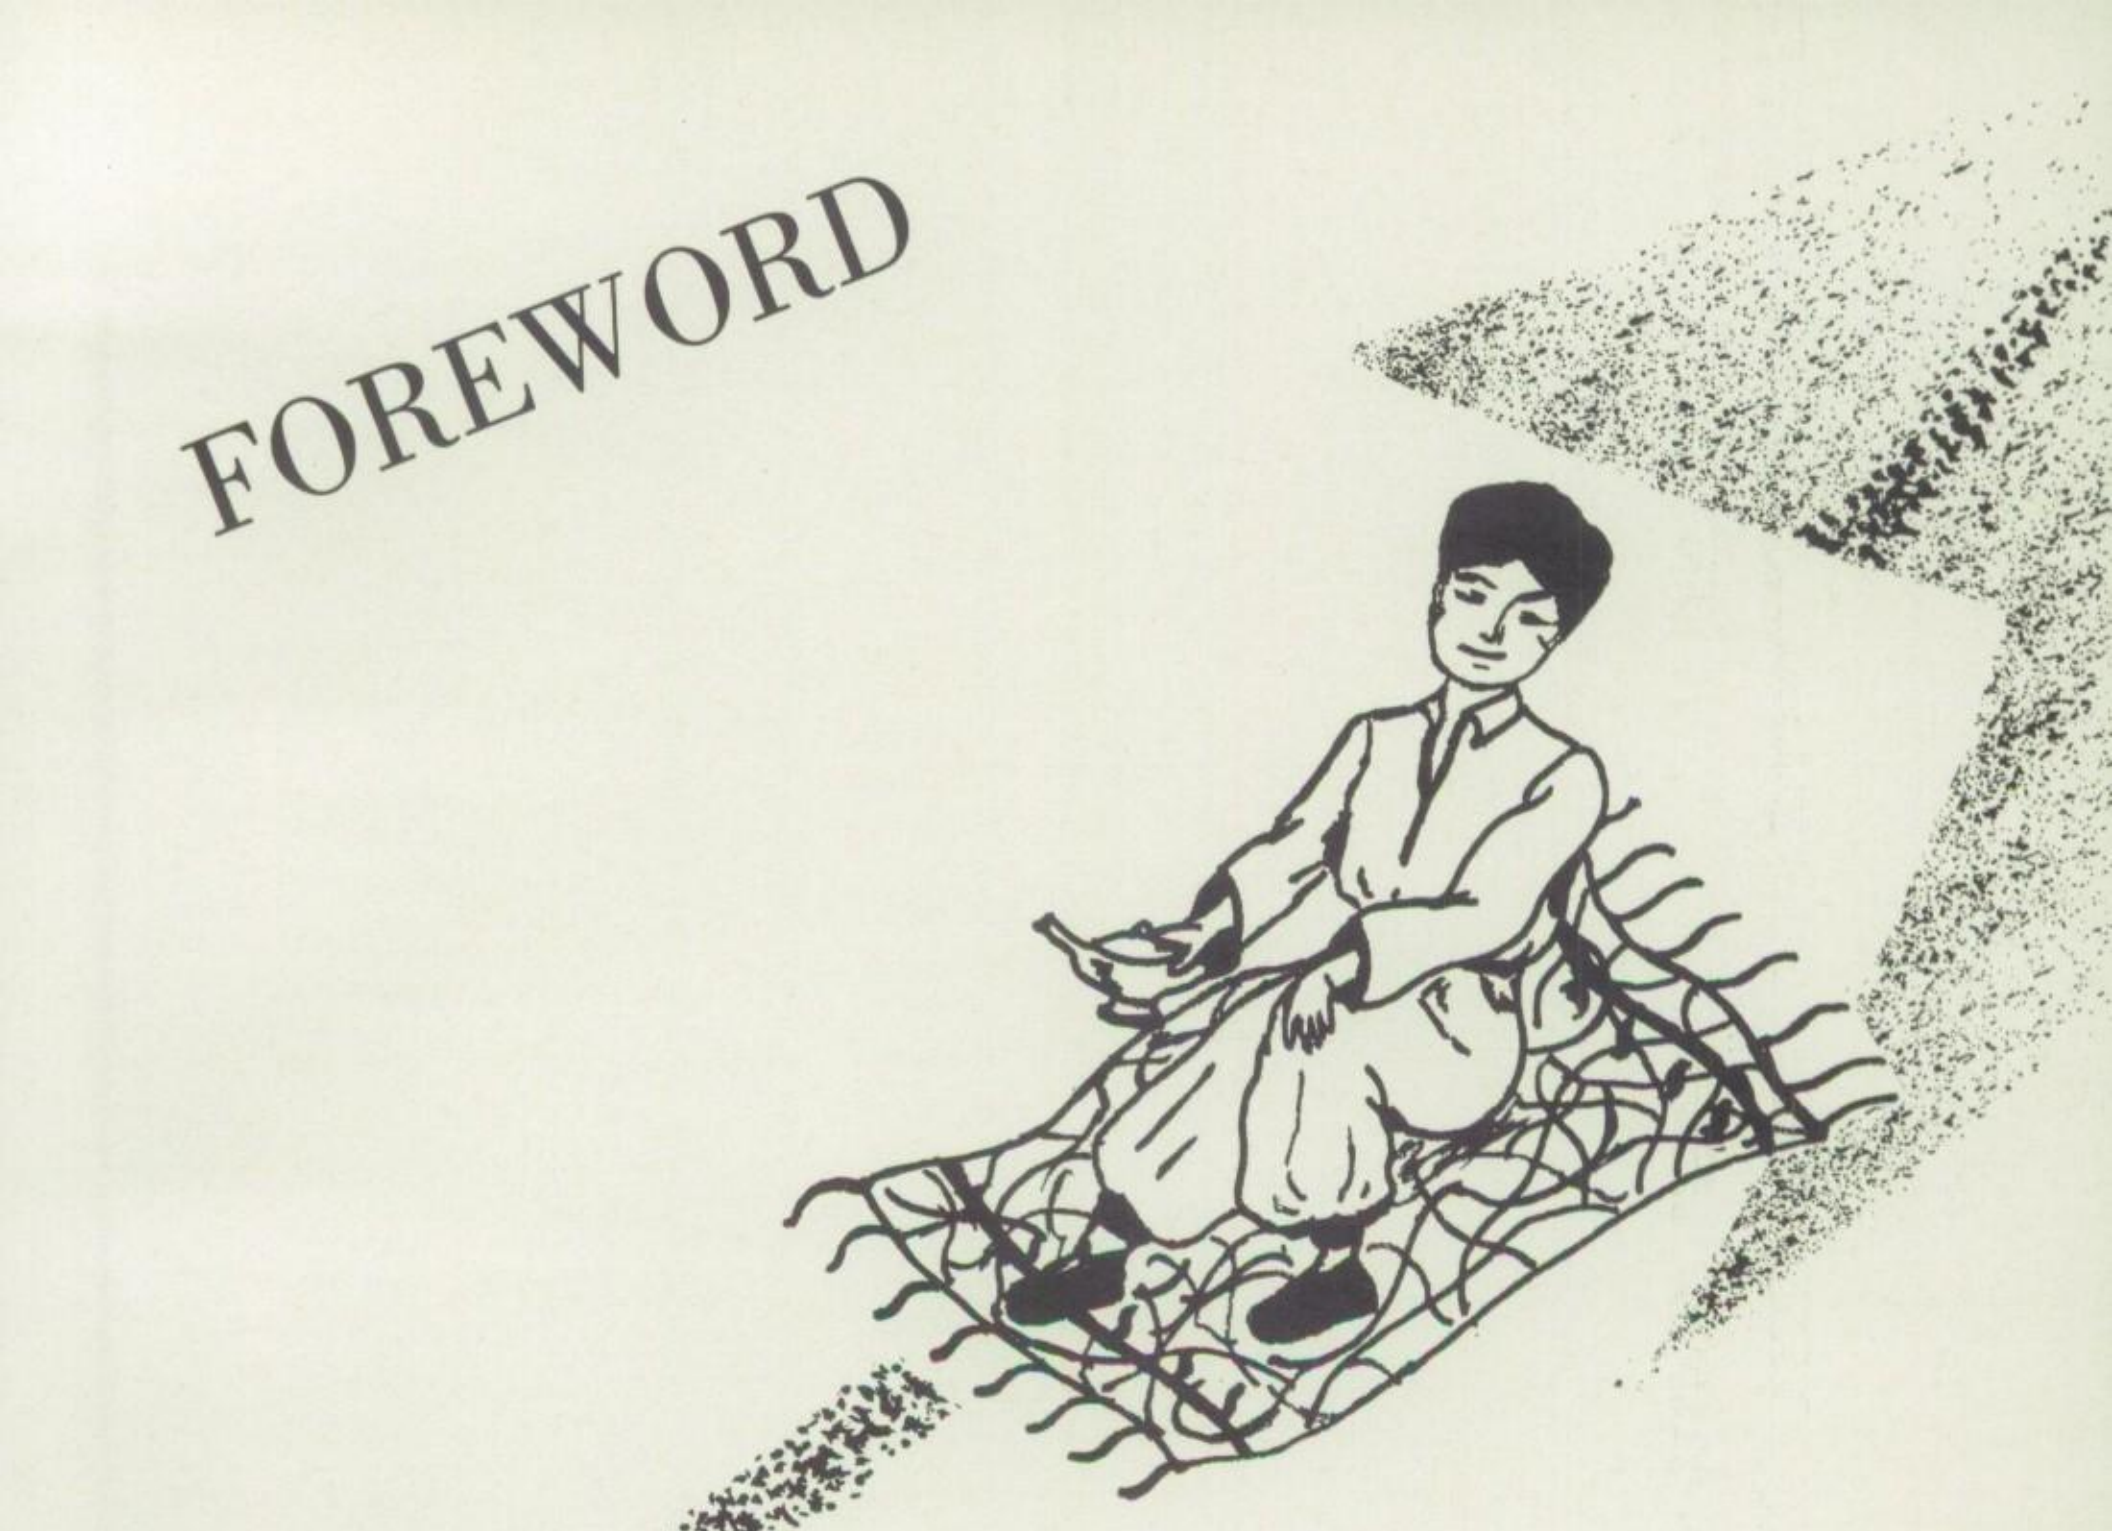
THE 1957

OWL



FOREWORD

Out of the depths of the Arabian Nights, down through the present century, has come a little spirit, full of magic and mystery.

This is the genie who has protected and guided us during our high school years. Through toil and strife, through joy and happiness, he has presided over our destiny.

He has witnessed the period of our life, when we were just beginning to realize the value of an education, until the time when we accepted and recognized it with full understanding. He has seen us grow in character, mind, and ability, as well as in body.

As we, the seniors of Bensalem High School, make use of the knowledge and wisdom we have developed during these past twelve years, our friend, the genie, guides us into the land of the future, which opens before us.

Once there, we can establish in our minds the priceless influence which has succeeded in making its presence felt.

ADMINISTRATION

Seniors, be in all respects, a mirror of good deeds, and in your teaching, for most certainly you are teachers, show sound honest thinking, be a model of behavior and habit, a courier of truth, a harbinger of brotherly love, and a prophet of faith in your fellow man.

ROBERT K. SHAFER
Superintendent of Schools

Your high school days are now only a glowing memory. Keep your hopes and ideals just as high in your new ventures—never forgetting that a lifetime of learning is not enough to reach your highest ambitions. Good luck and return often to your Alma Mater.

R. C. STRUBLE

Congratulations on achieving one of life's important goals. May you continue to progress until you reach the place in life you desire. Though you may often be discouraged, bear in mind that nothing worthwhile is accomplished without concentrated effort.

Sincerely,

UNDERCLASSMEN

I am sorry to say that, because I was so busy assisting the Juniors, I neglected the Sophomore Class. In spite of this, the class was still able to elect their officers and begin planning for their Junior year.

I, the Genie, predict many wonderful and interesting plans for the future.

Congratulations, Sophomores, you have the makings of an outstanding class.

As I glance into the past life of the Junior Class, I see the makings of a highly successful Senior Class.

With the enthusiastic effort of their able officers and advisors, this class sponsored the first dance of the year, which was a rollicking success; received their school rings; and sponsored the much anticipated Junior-Senior Prom.

In addition, they got a good start on their yearbook by electing their officers early in the second semester, giving them a chance to make early plans.

Best of luck to the Junior Class, and with the use of my clairvoyant powers, I can predict their forthcoming Senior year to be a very pleasurable one.

Many times during the months of September, October, and November, my "Magic Carpet" brought me to the Bensalem's practice field. While flying over, I observed many fellows hard at work practicing football with Coach Rheil and Assistant Coach Roskos.

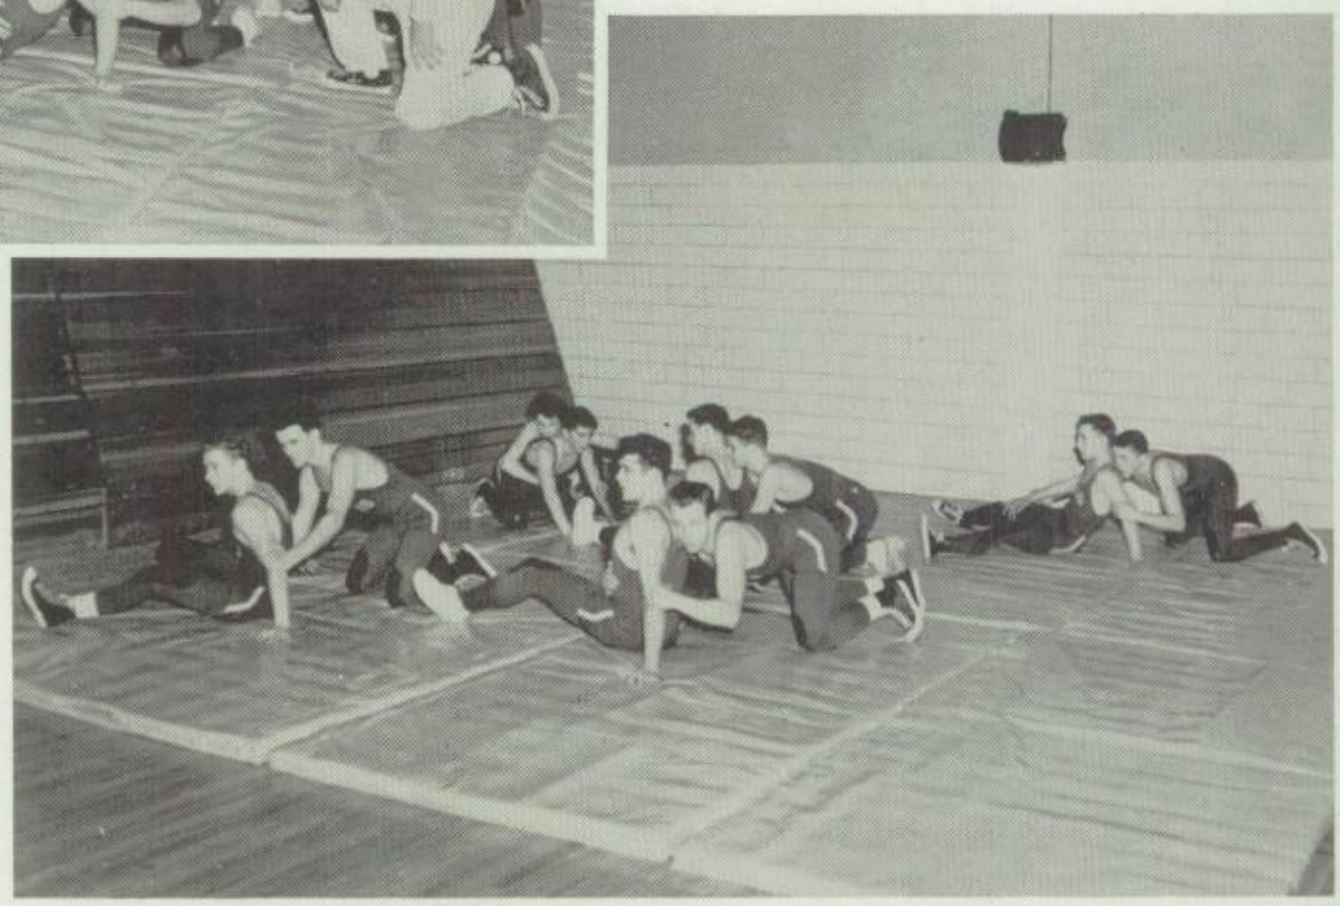
As my carpet came to rest it landed near many others. When I asked what they were I was told they were wrestling mats.

Wrestling is one of the coming sports of Lower Bucks County. The Owl matmen have a well-rounded team and considering this is only the second year of wrestling at Bensalem, have made an impressive showing.

Mr. Waters, ably assisted by Mr. Benshetler, has done a marvelous job with the boys. He has predicted a wrestling championship for Bensalem in the near future.



The Wrestling team in action.

One of the more popular sports at Bensalem is GIRL WATCHING. Participation by the boys is 100%. There are two features about this game which make it so interesting:

1. Nobody ever loses.
2. It doesn't take much practice before you become an expert.

As all well educated people will tell you, "to observe is to broaden your knowledge." But, even if the boys do not gain any knowledge from this sport, it is still good exercise for the eyes.

How well I remember basketball season. The Bensalem five were raring to bring a championship home to the students. Though they put their best efforts forward, they just couldn't seem to make it. They captured third place in the league with a record of nine wins and five losses.

Jerry Weikel, captain of the team, held fourth place in the league for personal scoring. Reese Yeagle, a senior, was captain of the J.V. Squad.

I remember the most exciting game of the season. It was the night of January 18, 1957. We played Bristol on our home court. When the final buzzer had rung, Bensalem had won to the tune of 75 to 58.

I must congratulate coach Van Horn on the outstanding job he has done on molding our team to be good sports, win or lose.

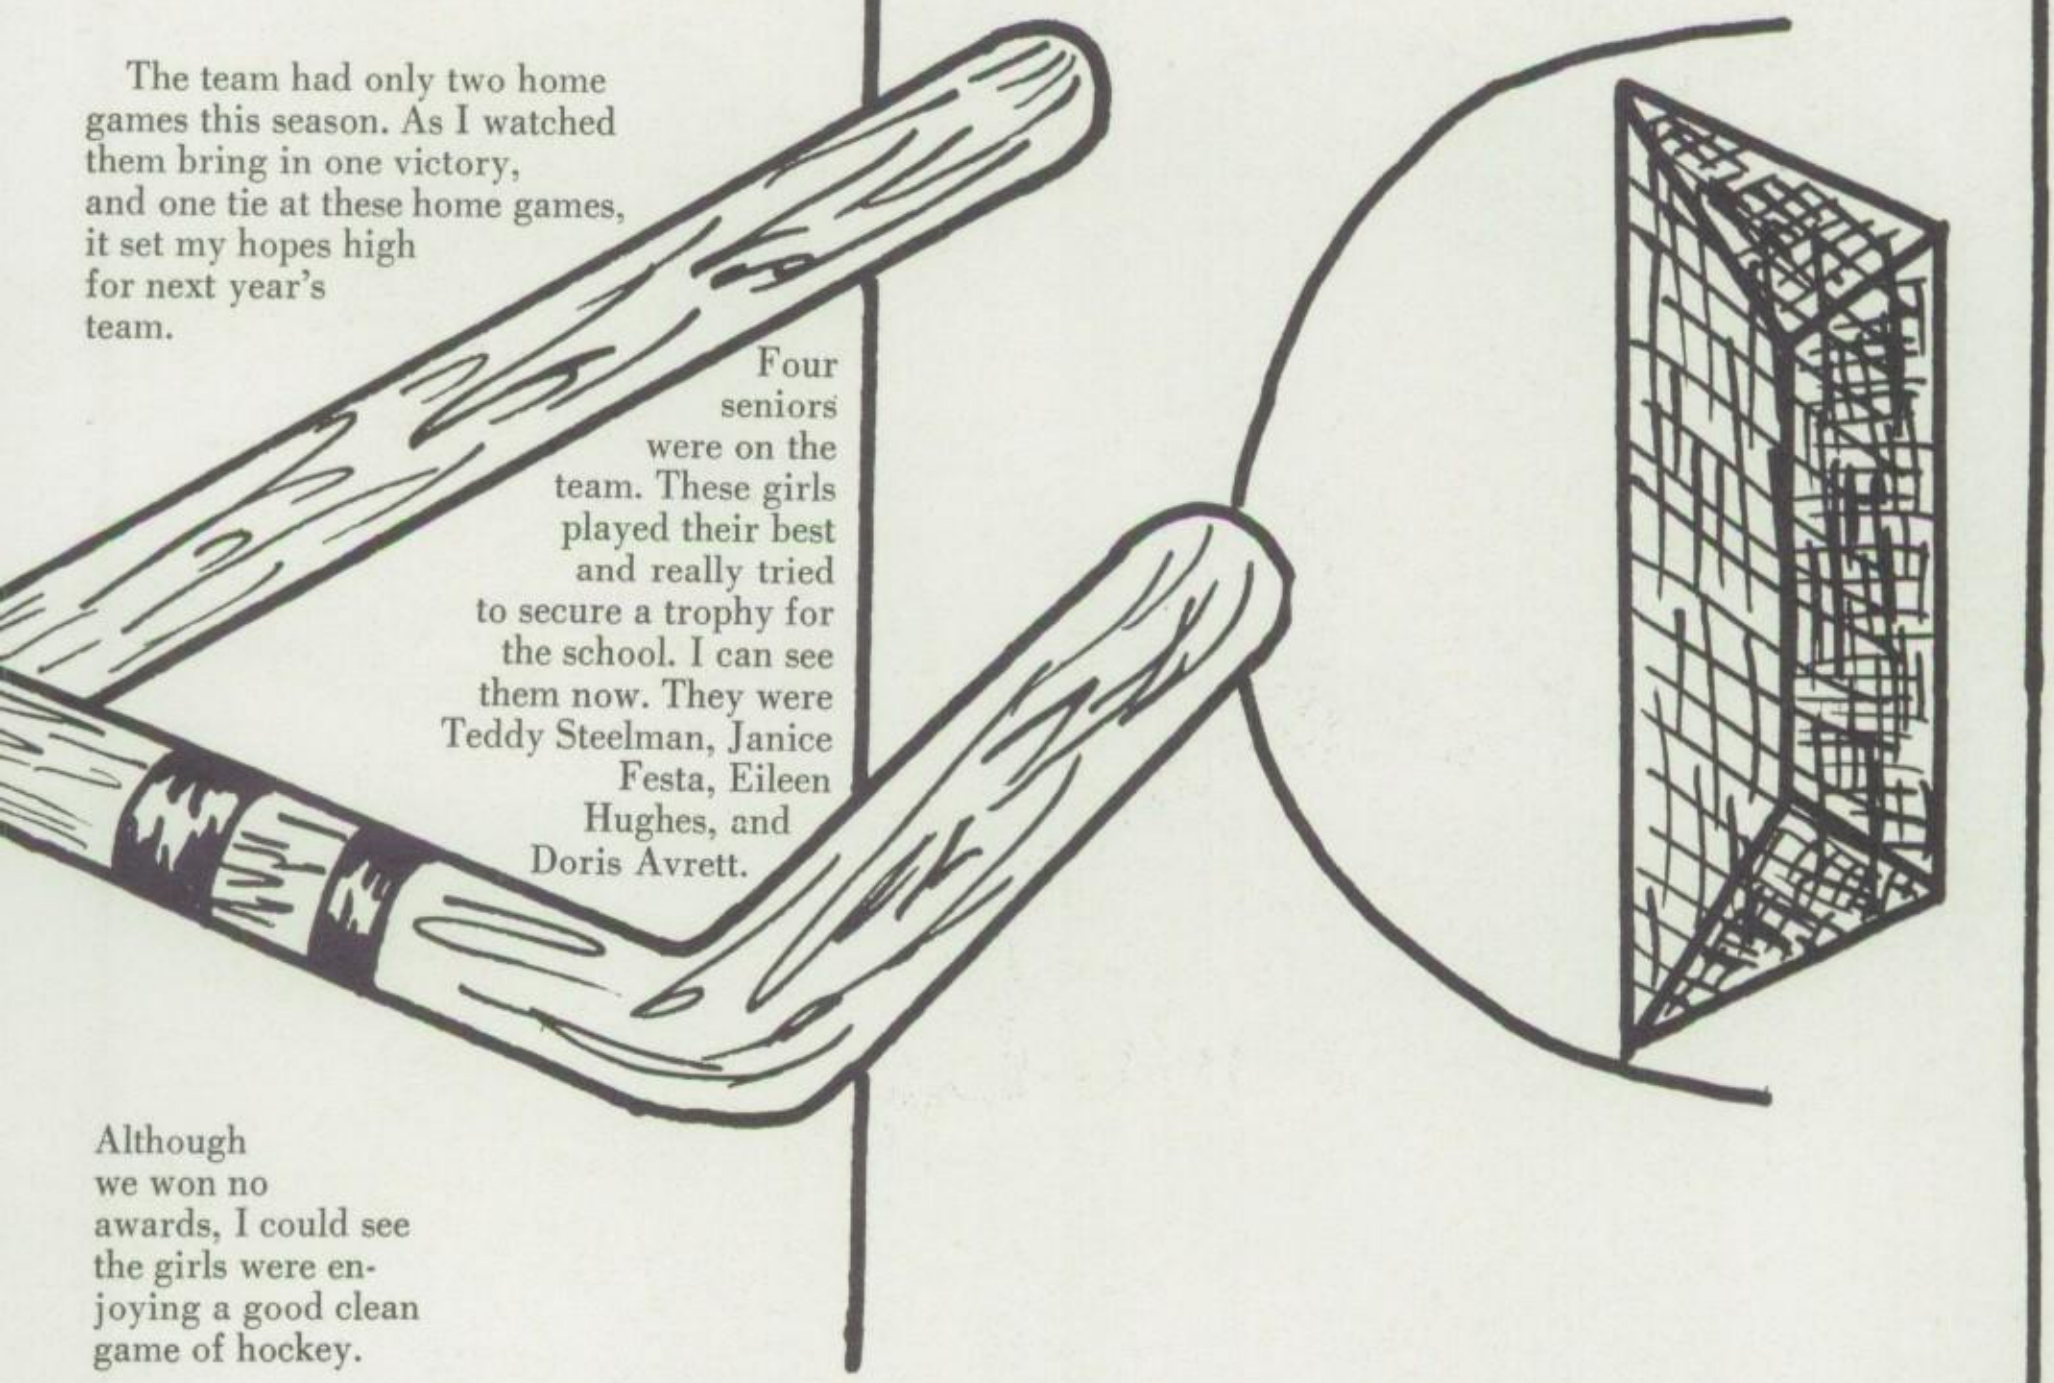
The team had only two home games this season. As I watched them bring in one victory, and one tie at these home games, it set my hopes high for next year's team.

Four seniors were on the team. These girls played their best and really tried to secure a trophy for the school. I can see them now. They were Teddy Steelman, Janice Festa, Eileen Hughes, and Doris Avrett.



Although we won no awards, I could see the girls were enjoying a good clean game of hockey.

ACTIVITIES

RALPH BARCLAY
Director

My favorite resting place after a long hard week is room 40. For it is here that sweet music flows every Friday afternoon from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m.

Under the careful direction of Mr. Barclay, the choir has been one of Bensalem's best good will ambassadors. They visited Bristol and Morrisville where they presented exchange assemblies.

The annual Christmas concert was presented humbly yet so beautifully.

Although I couldn't attend the Spring Concert, I received word that it was a success.

The choir officers for the 56-57 term were:

BAND

Football games were full of pep and enthusiasm with the help of the band.

I, the Genie, tried my best to make sure that they played the correct notes at all times. As a matter of fact, Mr. Mancia, the Band Director, and I became very good friends during this time.

The band, besides supplying outstanding music for the games, sold candy bars to raise funds, and held a Spring Concert.

I think I will always remember with a feeling of pride, the hard work and effort these boys and girls put into making the Bensalem High School band an outstanding one.

As the Genie flies around the football field, he sees the Color Guards marching proudly in front of the band. Bearing our flags and colors, and commanded by their captain, Becky Hosgood, they expertly devise and demonstrate their new steps and drills. The Genie has said that he is not only proud to see the Color Guards during the football games but also seeing them march in various parades.

MAJORETTES

On my travels, I often enjoyed visiting the practice drills of the Majorettes.

Under the direction of Mary Ann Wojsowski, Head Majorette, they developed into one of the most uniform and skillful groups of Majorettes in the County.

Many times, bitter cold as it was, they still paraded with forceful spirit.

During the many years that I have been keeping my vigil over Bensalem, I have noticed the many activities participated in by the students.

One of these activities is the school newspaper. This year the publication was changed to a paper in place of the past book.

With the change came a new name, Owlmanac.

With the hard work that Gail Wernsing, Editor of the Owlmanac, gives and the effort that the staff constantly puts into the paper, the publication has been a great success in keeping the students up to date with the happenings at Bensalem.

I have worked very close with the Editor, Charlotte Kirk, and I must comment that the class had made a wise choice selecting her for Editor of their yearbook. She, along with Mr. Fegely and Mr. Riley have put their best efforts forth to publish an outstanding yearbook.

Congratulations, class of 1957. May you always page through this yearbook which holds wonderful memories of your high school days.

STUDENT COUNCIL

MISS ORPHIA CHELLAND

TEDDY STEELMAN
President

Our Student Council has become a vital organ in the school's activity. With the proper officers and members it has helped better student conditions.

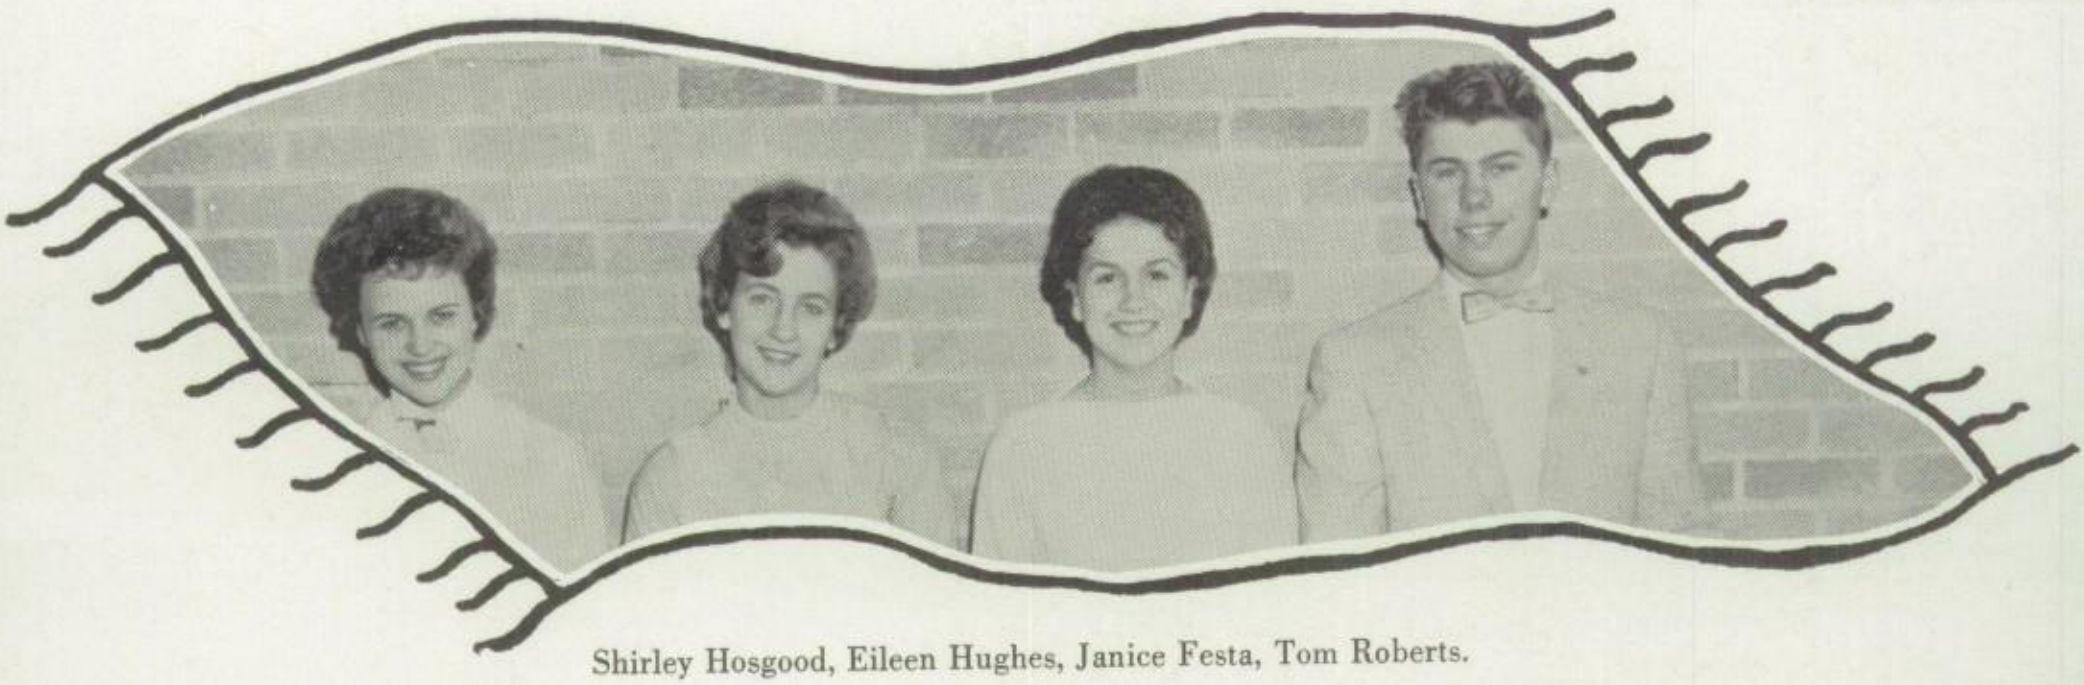
Under the outstanding leadership of President Teddy Steelman, the Student Council has sponsored many activities; some of which have been "Blue and Gray Night," and the All-School Play. Our school store has been enlarged and many students are enjoying its products.

I think all of the members deserve credit for making our Student Council what it is today.

Student Council listens attentively while Teddy explains a new project.

SENIORS

CLASS LEADERS



Shirley Hosgood, Eileen Hughes, Janice Festa, Tom Roberts.

The Senior Class and I are justly proud of their accomplishments this year. First and most important, was the election of Class Officers and the appointment of an Executive Committee to guide them through the coming year. Both of these groups functioned well and by their able direction the class proved to be successful at everything they attempted to do. Our biggest project was the Christmas Card sale. Seniors really went all out to make this sale successful. "The Ivy League Hop," a unique dance, turned out to be the best attended dance of the year.

The Seniors will always be grateful for the guidance shown us by our class advisors.

I, the Genie, will always remember with fondness, the class of '57.

As the Genie has walked among the Class of '57 for the last four years, he has noticed certain members of the class that have been outstanding.

They are the ones who have seemed to have the infinite ability to be a leader among their classmates, take an active part in school work, maintain a vigorous social life, and still top their fellow students in scholarship.

The Genie and the Class of 1957 are proud of these, our Honor Students.

HEAVEN

I can remember back to Friday, May 12, 1956.

It was on this date that heaven was brought to earth in the Bensalem High School.

Small cafe tables surrounded by a white picket fence set the scene for the heavenly night I shall never forget.

A half moon with a little pixie (one of my best friends), supplied the center piece.

Music was played by a group called the Villanovan's.

As I watched the couples dance, I thought to myself "This is heaven."

Before the Prom there is much excitement.

Three Senior girls pose quite prettily.

SENIOR PLAY

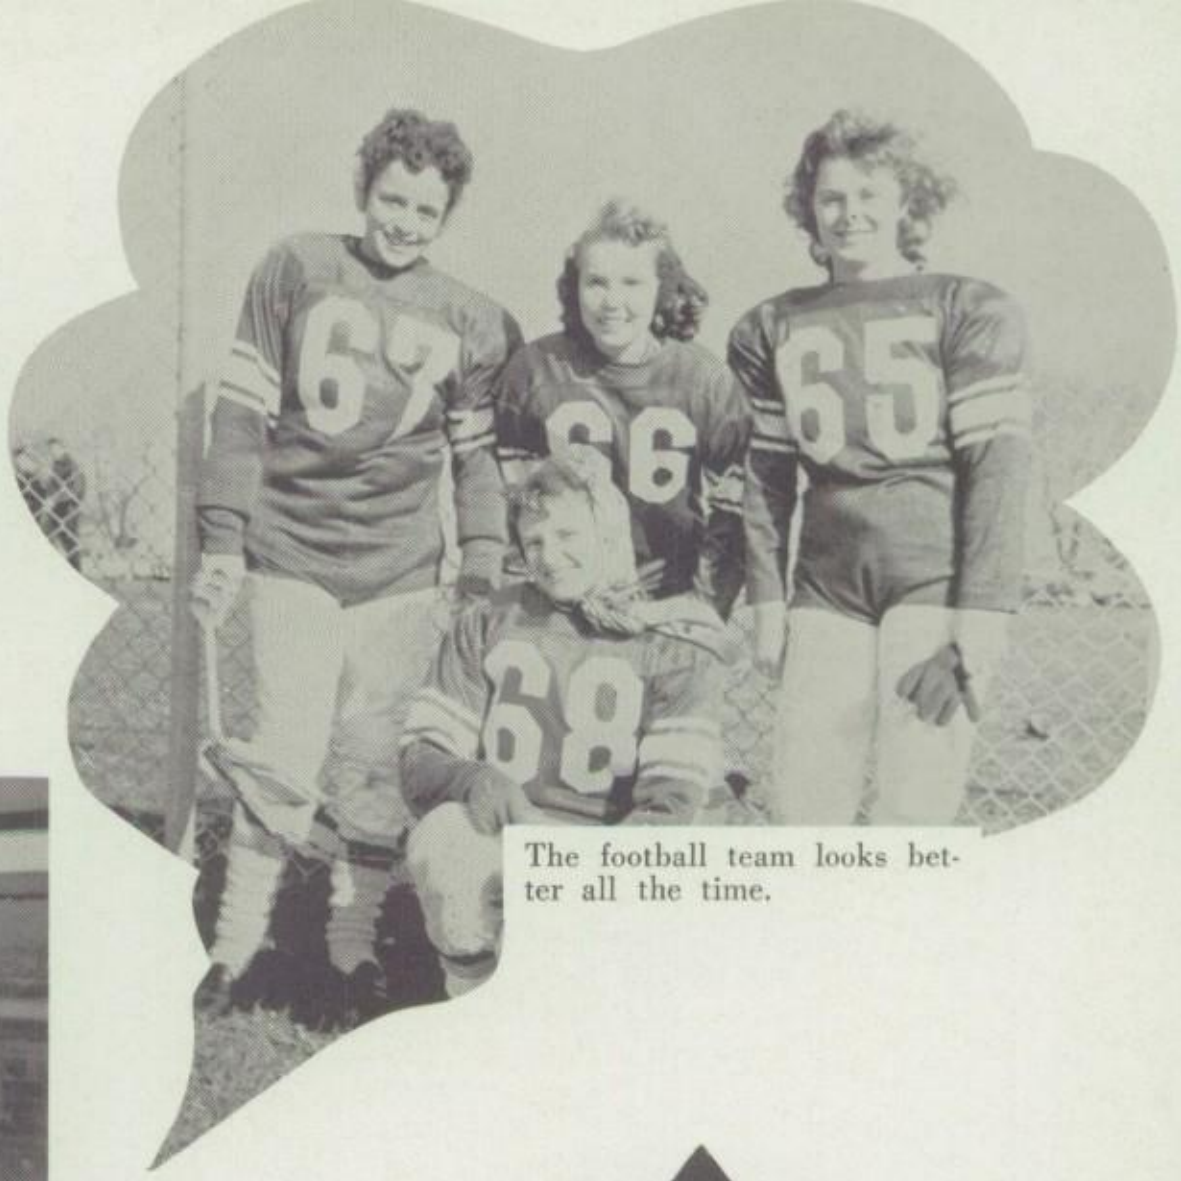
During the years of 1956 and 1957, I, Genie, have tried to help the Senior class as best I could. One of my most hardiest efforts was that of being the unseen director of the Senior play, "Junior Prom." It was a very amusing play and by the use of my magical power, I was able to help make the play a huge success. Of course, I must not take all the credit myself. A curtain call is in order for Mr. Eugene Fegely, for the terrific job he did in "assisting" me direct the play.

I admit, that even though I had heard the play many times before the opening night, I simply rolled all over my Magic Carpet the night of the Star performance; the play was that amusing.

EUGENE FEGELY
Director

First row: T. Roberts, M. Etzrodt, B. Weber, P. Laros, R. Malinowski. Second row: G. Brawner, C. Kirk, J. Dean, H. Harner, T. Brill, D. Avrett, P. Franco.

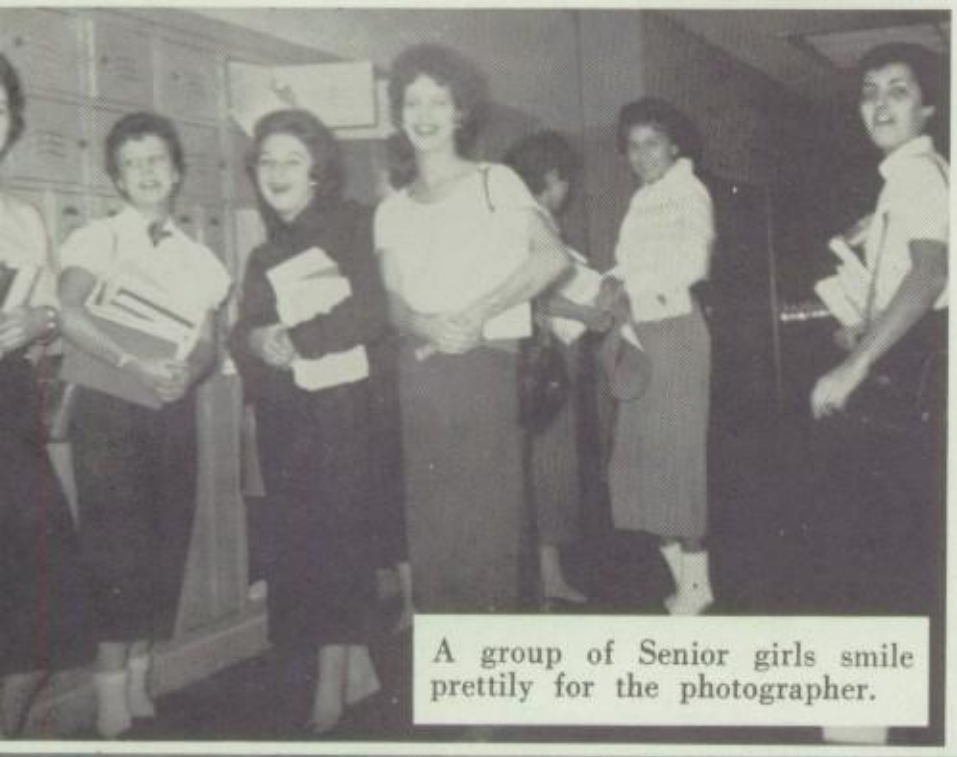
It looks as though Ginny is getting an overhauling.



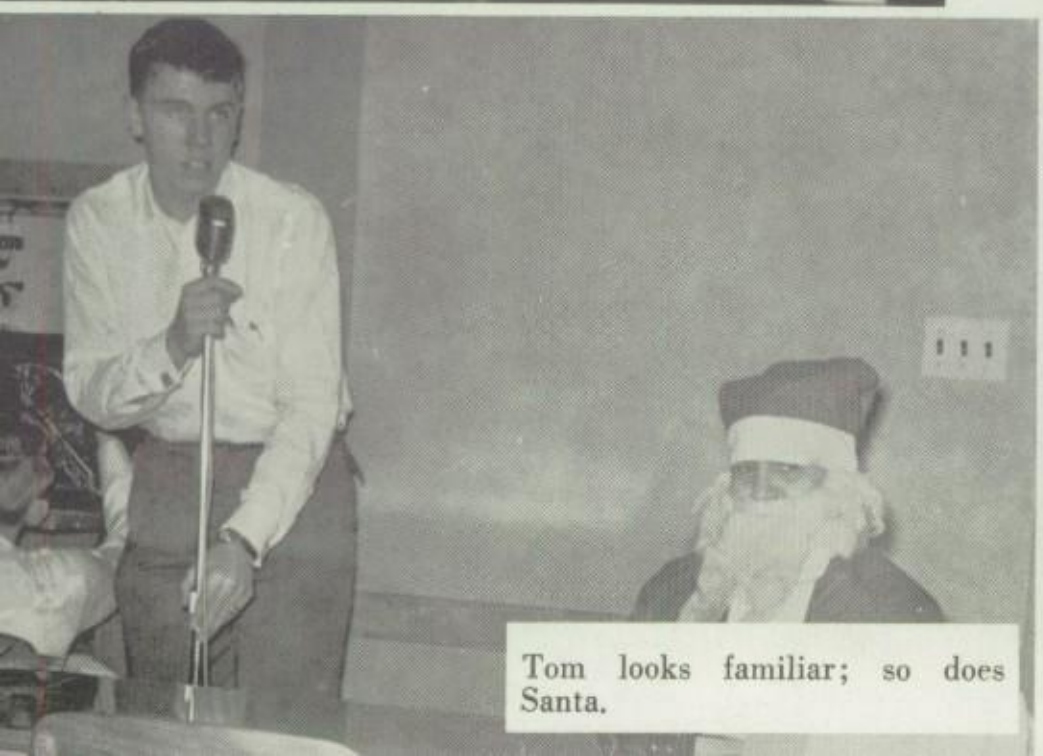
The football team looks better all the time.

Helen looks a wee bit tired.

A group of Seniors pause for a rest while walking through the United Nations Building in New York City.



A group of Senior girls smile prettily for the photographer.



Tom looks familiar; so does Santa.

Washington or bust!
